Wilber Lee Thompson died October 24, 1892, aged 1 year, 10 months and 28 days. Again is the bereaved family of Mr. and Mrs. Thompson visited by the death angel. The parents have lost three little ones in eleven days. Such is the sad history of a few short days.

If you are too poor to buy a good pair of glasses, call at Institute and they will give you a pair. 1313

We have heard the evening Mail complimented on the fairness with which it has treated the contending parties in this campaign. It has been about as fair as a neutral paper well could be.

Hubbard & George now have their feed mill in operation at their feed store under the G. A. R. hall. Have them grind your feed. 419

All of our farmers needing money should call on Black & Murrell. They are loaning at the lowest rates and will charge you no commission. 351f

Our county correspondents are now invited to renew their favors in the news of their localities. Writing material and envelopes will be supplied and we ask you to help make the Voice the best county paper in this section of the state.

In our great rush on account of the campaign we have overlooked our local department, which, hereafter, will receive careful attention.

We unintentionally neglected to mention the return home of Mr. Luke Herring, of the Standard. He is still confined to his home, but is thought to be steadily gaining in strength. His many friends will be glad to see him return to his editorial labors.

Feed Mills.

J. Johnson will sell you a Feed Mill for $24.00 cash or $25.00 on time and guarantee it for 5 years. Grinds ear corn or any kind of grain. Have ground trials of 25 bushels per hour. Address me at Wellington and I will bring you a mill on trial.

The rallies on Friday and Saturday were well attended. Of course each crowd looked the larger to those who belonged to the parties represented, and all sides seemed to be satisfied. The Simpson parade had over 500 vehicles in line with about twice as many voters. Mr. Simpson did not arrive in time for the day meeting, but Mr. Lewelling addressed the crowd in the grove. In the evening Jerry Simpson addressed a crowded opera house and Mr. Forney entertained a packed audience at Liberty Hall.

On Saturday Mr. Ingalls addressed a tent full of people at the ball grounds and Mr. Long spoke to a good sized audience at night. That ended the campaign in this city.

Come to Wellington stove works and examine our small Cannons. No. 10 $3.50. No. 12 $4. No. 14 $5.50.

Murphy—Fry.

The social event of the season occurred at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Fry, of this city, Thursday evening of last week, when in the presence of about sixty invited guests, their charming daughter, Miss Retta A. Fry, was married to Mr. W. E. Murphy, the popular salesman of Share Bros. dry goods store. The reception committee, consisting of Mrs. I. I. Scott, Miss Belle Moore, Messrs. C. D. Benton and Jacob Engle, put every one at ease and added much to the pleasure of the occasion. At the appointed hour the contracting parties entered the parlor attended by Mr. Fletcher Price and Miss Carrie Rouse, while the sweet strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Mrs. Scott, delighted all. Rev. J. D. Botkin pronounced the mystic words that made the twain one flesh. This was followed by hearty congratulations, a rich repast and a delightful hour of social intercourse. The bride was dressed in beautiful cream Henrietta, trimmed in pearl and ribbon with cascades of chiffon from shoulders to waist. The groom wore the conventional black. The bridesmaid wore a princess dress of baby blue Henrietta with lace trimmings to match. The groomsmen were dressed in a becoming black suit. Mr. and Mrs. Murphy are prominent among the young people of the M. E. church of this city, the former being an efficient teacher in the Sunday school and active in various departments of church work. They begin wedded life with the best wishes of friends in and out of the church.

Annual Thanksgiving Rally—Kansas Union.

Manhattan, Nov. 24th to 27th. The soldiers of the Cross are again invited to rally at Manhattan from Thursday evening, Nov. 24th, to Lord's Day night, Nov. 27th. All in sympathy with our Master's broken heart, and in real earnest to get abroad to all the creation the story of redemption through His blood, heartily called to the assembly.

It is our hope that again Dr. James H. Brookes of St. Louis, whose presence in the past has been so blessed to us, may again speak from the eternal Word of God; Hathan, the Jew; Pastor Gravitt of Denver; George S. Fisher of the World's Gospel Union, will be there, and we are looking to see the face of Pubbit "of Kansas," as he comes home again.

Meetings for bible study, missions, giving the Lord's treasure back to Him, Memory meetings for Helmick, who studied and "worked with his hands" in Manhattan; for Gates, who is waiting up there to return with the saints of God; HELPing meetings for those now "On the Way" and soon to sail.

Reduced rates on all railroads. Total expense for Convention dining hall and lodgings not to exceed $1.00. Bring with you blankets, bed-tick and toilet articles: Bibles, note-books and Hymns, new and old.

Are you going? Circulars and any information gladly sent by addressing C. M. Wilbur, State Secretary, Abilene, Kansas.
